

ANDREW H. HOWARD
Geochemical/Geotechnical Laboratory Technician
andrewhoward@tdi-bi.com

EDUCATION

Texas A&M University, College Station, TX, Bachelor of Science, Ocean Engineering, May 2006

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

TDI-Brooks International, Inc./ B&B Laboratories, College Station, TX, Geochemical/Geotechnical Laboratory Technician, August 2010-Present

- Perform geochemical and geotechnical laboratory analyses in a safe and efficient manner using good laboratory procedures to ensure data quality
- Transport samples, data entry/ record organization and participate in assigned training

Marintek (USA), Inc., Houston, TX, Graduate Researcher, June 2006-August 2009

- Responsible for nine line mooring system analysis, FE analysis of several test drop wedges and animation of the disconnection simulation and instability analysis

Sam's Club, College Station, TX, Cashier and Cash Office Attendant, July 2003 – March 2006

- Responsible for seeing members through the register line in a timely, friendly manner
- Responsible for the opening/closing accounting practices, verification of all register receipts, and advanced member financial assistance

PROFESSIONAL TRAINING

Accelerated Extractor (Dionix ASE 200)
Luminescence Spectrometer (LS 50B)
Basic Offshore Survival and Emergency Training