

PETER W. HITCHCOCK

Party Chief

peterhitchcock@tdi-bi.com

EDUCATION

Texas A&M University, College Station, TX, Master of Arts in Anthropology, Nautical Archaeology, 2002

Texas A&M University, College Station, TX, Bachelor of Arts in Anthropology, 1993

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

TDI Brooks International, Inc., College Station, TX., Laboratory Technician and Party Chief,, June 2010- present

Texas A&M University, Project Manager for Mardi Gras Shipwreck Project, Seafloor survey and archaeological recovery, March 2005-June 2009

Veolia Environmental Services, ROV Technician Mackinaw, Michigan, Aug 2007

Texas A&M University , Assistant Director for Red River Shipwreck Project, June 2003-2004

Texas A&M University, Graduate Teaching Assistant for Department of Oceanography, Aug 2002-May 2004

Texas A&M University, Archaeologist, MICA Shipwreck Project. July 2002

Texas A&M University      Research Scientist for Conservation Research Laboratory, La Belle shipwreck, July 1997

Texas Historical Commission, Archaeologist for the La Salle Shipwreck Project, July 1996-May 1997

South Carolina Institute of Archaeology and Anthropology      Archaeologist for H.L. Hunley, May 1996

Texas A&M University      Project Director- Intelligent Whale Survey, a Civil War era submersible, March 1996.

Texas A&M University, Archaeologist, Sadana Island Project, Red Sea, Egypt, April -Aug 1995.

Colorado State University, Research Assistant for the Laboratory of Public Archaeology. Sept 1989-May 1990 .

VOLUNTEER EXPERIENCE

C&C Technologies, Archaeologist WWII Shipwreck Project, Gulf of Mexico, Aug 2004..

Texas A&M University, Technician, Deep Tow Sonar/Sub-Bottom Profile Project, Feb 1996

Texas A&M University, Archaeologist, Lake Champlain Project. May- Aug 1993

Colorado State University, Archaeologist for the John Pock Site Project, Pleasant View, CO.
May -Aug 1992

PUBLICATIONS/PRESENTATIONS

“Excavating in 4,000 feet of Water” Ocean Drilling Program’s annual Committee Meeting.
August 2008

“Field operations of the Mardi Gras Shipwreck Project ”...Shipwreck Weekend, Nautical
Archaeology Program, May 2008

“Findings of the Mardi Gras Survey” Oceanography Seminar, TAMU, October 2007

“Potential Deepwater Project in the GOM” Oceanography Seminar, TAMU, November
2006

“Red River Shipwreck Project” Shipwreck Weekend, Nautical Archaeology Conference,
May 2005

“Investigation of a Civil War Era Submersible: Interim Report” SHA, Conference on Historical and Underwater Archaeology, January 1997

FIELD:

Working knowledge of side scan sonar systems and software, specifically Marine Sonic systems

Working knowledge of magnetometers systems and software, specifically the Geometrics G
882

Working knowledge of deeptow sub bottom system, Isis software

Remotely operated vehicles (ROV) experience, specifically the Sperre Sub-fighter 7500

Certified Scientific Diver (scuba)

Training in Marine Survival and Helicopter Underwater Egress, First Aid, and CPR.